Strategy

PRESENT ACTIVITIES

Strategy Technique ISO

In order to form a good speech for IELTS Speaking Part 2, test takers should look into the technique ISO:

- Introduction: Start your talk with a sentence that can introduce the topic in a direct way. Then you should create some background information before getting to the main content by talking about what the activity is, who you do it with or where/when you do it.
- Story: The most important part is to talk about how you do it, how often you do it and what benefits this activity brings you.
- Opinion: After telling the story about that person, you should add topic-related lesson or evaluation by talking about how you feel about the activity or what the activity means to you.
